Dear Parents and Carers,

The children have all been on great form this week. A combination of chocolate advent calendars before school, Christmas lights going up and cheeky elves creating havoc at home and school, has led to a lot of Christmas excitement!

Christmas is here

The reins were released this week and the teachers were finally able to let their festive spirits out! The children have really enjoyed putting up decorations, seeing what the elves have been up to, listening to Christmas music and rehearsing their Christmas shows!

Christmas is always a magical time in primary schools and we wish we could have you in to show you. We'll keep putting pictures on Facebook and in the newsletter so you can have a little look yourselves.
