Dear Parents and Carers,

What a busy week we have had at Hailsham, there has been colour and spaghetti everywhere!

Water Wall

If your child has come home a little more damp than usual it might be because of our new water wall, which is coming together. The children have loved exploring and playing with the tubes!

Spaghetti Spaghetti

It was National Poetry Day on Thursday 3rd October. We celebrated the day by learning the poem Spaghetti Spaghetti and then staff and children sat down 'family style' for spaghetti bolognese and garlic bread. We had a great time slurping up our spaghetti. Please see HCC's Facebook page for the video and lots more.

Elma Day

On Wednesday the children all celebrated differences with a day all about the story of Elma! The children dressed in multi colours and learnt all about how we are different and how lucky we are to not all be the same.

Thank you to all parents who also brought in a book to donate to the school library on the day.

Have a great weekend! Mr Redman
